ABOUT

Chrome side tables with lamp extension, complete with rod bases and round glass table tops.

These tables would be great in a classic or contemporary dining room, living room, den, family room, office or bedroom. They would also be an apt choice in a corporate, retail or hospitality location such as a boutique hotel lobby, cocktail bar, members club, workspace studio, executive office or in a luxe clothing emporium.

Good vintage condition. Some stains and rust to finish. Glass in very good condition. As expected, signs of use commensurate with age are evident.

Please note we cannot guarantee the workings of this piece and may need to be rewired. less
